

C. SCRIPTURE TALK

“Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do,
do it with thy might.”

Ecclesiastes 9:10

“Take a good look at your hands,” Miss Harper said as the children held their hands out in front of them. “Notice how the fingers bend at every knuckle. See how the thumb and fingers meet so that you can pick things up. Look at the thin lines running across the palms of your hands and the curved lines at the ends of your fingertips. God made those lines to be different on every person.

The lines on your fingers leave a fingerprint when you touch something. And your fingerprint is different from everyone else’s. God made you a very special person.

“Did you know, Susan, that there is not one single person in the whole world just like you? It’s not only your hands that are different. There is no other face like yours either. No one walks exactly like you. No one talks exactly like you. Even your handwriting is yours alone. God sure must love you a lot!”

Susan couldn’t help blushing a little as Miss Harper talked. She smiled as she thought about the greatness of God’s love.
